Good morning, everyone! I'm Hana from Class 731, here with you this Words of Wisdom on behalf of the SEAL Team!

As the year is coming to an end, we are spending our last few days together making memories, celebrating our achievements, and enjoying time with our classmates and teachers. It can be exciting to think about summer vacation, but it is also important to appreciate these final moments of the school year. We have all worked hard, learned new things, and grown in many ways since the first day of school.

Today's words of wisdom remind us to finish strong. Even though the year is almost over, every day is still an opportunity to learn, help others, and be the best version of ourselves. As you go through your day, think about the positive memories you have made and the goals you have accomplished. Be proud of how far you have come, and remember to end the year with kindness and respect.

Like Anne Frank, the affirmation of the day is, "I stay true to who I am."

Thanks for listening and have a Wonderful Wednesday 😊
